The kids or your guests will love this travel trailer thanks to the double-size bunks in the back! You will love having your own private bedroom up front with a comfortable queen bed and storage space for your things. Any other guests you have can sleep on the sofa or booth dinette within the combined living and kitchen area. Once you make dinner in the full kitchen, head outdoors to relax under the patio awning with an LED light strip!

Get ready for comfortable and easy camping with the Prowler Lynx travel trailers by Heartland. These models feature a performastucture aluminum front wall, which is a hybrid construction with a welded aluminum front cage for maximum aerodynamics and durability. You will love the extra large windows for great outdoor views and an A/C unit to keep you cool during the hot summer camping months. Each model also includes innovative storage spaces that will help you keep camp gear and personal belongings clean and neat! Don't let the Prowler Lynx travel trailers slip away.
