An abundance of storage is carefully designed into each unit featuring a strong all-aluminum tube cabinet structure.

When it's time to hit the road, CampLite scoots down the highway light and breezy thanks to its all-aluminum superstructure, which adds durable strength without a hefty weight. These quick and lively ultra light travel trailers are designed to get you where the fun is with easy towing efficiency. Available in six aluminum paint schemes and six fiberglass color choices, the jazzy exterior turns heads wherever you go!

No less impressive is the interior's contemporary style and spacious livability with the choice of three color decors and a variety of floorplans. Everything needed for comfortable family camping has been engineered into each model.
