AN opulent ESCAPE

Enter the master bedroom through a six-panel wood passage door and uncover an Ultrafabrics® headboard with a wood trim that pairs seamlessly with the Windwood décor's patterned bedspread. Then, lie back on the available Sleep Number® adjustable mattress and set your eyes upon yet another Sony® LED TV. Inches below, deep flat-panel drawers offer both style and storage, while select floor plans incorporate a full-wall wardrobe and an available Whirlpool® stacked washer and dryer.

Walk back to the master bedroom and step into a full-wall wardrobe closet that exists just beyond a king bed.

WELL-DISTINGUISHED

An intriguing combination of glamour and refinement, Windwood décor leads with deep, rich tones throughout. A distinct layered oval motif adds a welcome dose of pattern and sophistication, for a lavish aesthetic that is evident everywhere you look. OUR PEOPLE MAKE the DIFFERENCE

*Newmar was founded in 1968 for one simple reason:
to build a better RV.*

Since then, we've focused our efforts and energy on creating residential-quality "homes on wheels," complete with handmade cabinetry and designer décors.

And every Newmar is handcrafted one at a time by men and women who have spent an average of eight years assembling them, resulting in superior-quality coaches that fully surpass their mass-produced competition.

Here, we don't just take the responsibility of designing, engineering, and constructing your motorhome seriously, we take it personally. Because in the end, our goal is not to win your trust, but earn it. Not once, but every single time you hit the road.

Join us, and discover the Newmar difference for yourself.
