The Bullet 290BHS is the perfect travel trailer for our little family. We have plenty of space to store everything we need for our trips and cabinet space to spare. The separate entrance into the bathroom is what we love the most; less trekking through the camper just for a trip to the bathroom. We love having our own room, and our son looks forward to sleeping in his bunk bed every time we camp. After three years, and over 30 camping trips, we're still sure we made the right choice.
