INTERIOR FEATURES

From seating and sleeping arrangements to plush furniture and home-like amenities, Z-I delivers on high-end value. The bunkhouse models are perfect for families. Kids love having their own space. Thirteen floor plans present a multiple choice of seating and sleeping arrangements. A popular choice is the U-shaped dinette, which seats seven around the table. After dinner, with a few simple adjustments, it becomes an extra bed.

Buy Local

Where you purchase your recreational vehicle is ultimately your decision but CrossRoads urges you to consider buying at your local dealer. Dealers are part of your community, providing jobs and contributing to your local economy. These dealers are under obligation to provide warranty service for products they sell, but are not legally required to service products purchased from other dealers. You enjoy customer priority. Dealerships generally service their purchasing customers first, others may experience long delays and miss opportunities to use their RV. What is it worth for you to have a dealership's full attention and motivation to satisfy you when you need service in a timely manner? Why not stay close to home?
