SPECIFICATION DEFINITIONS

GVAWR (Gross Vehicle Weight Rating) is the maximum permissible weight of the unit when fully loaded. It includes a full complement of weight in items of all fluids, cargo, optional equipment and accessories. An early and proper understanding of GVWR is essential to safe operation. GVWR (Gross Vehicle Weight Rating) is the maximum permissible weight, including cargo, fluids, optional equipment and accessories that can be safely supported by a vehicle of all sizes. GVW (Gross Vehicle Weight) is the total weight of the unit as manufactured at the factory. It includes all weight at the unit's factory installation on an OP Unit. The GVW shown on each cargo, fresh, potable water, additional optional equipment or dealer-installed accessories, CCC (Cargo Carrying Capacity) is the amount of weight available for fresh, potable water, cargo, additional optional equipment and accessories. CCC is equal to GVWR minus GVW. Available CCC should be considered for each possible loading situation. Exceeding the fresh water, cargo, potable water, and gray water capacity for more cargo capacity. Each Forest River RV is labeled at the manufacturing facility with a shipping label identifying the unladen vehicle weight of the motor home. All other cargo, equipment and accessories are applied to a given Forest River RV in its loading condition. The load capacity of your unit is designed to support a safety margin as you are not necessarily using all available capacity when fully equipped. All information provided in this manual is subject to the accuracy of the data provided. However, changing model year or major accessories to meet weight and Forest River Inc. reserves the right to make all such changes without notice, including price, loading methods, equipment and procedures as well as the addition of new models and the elimination of models in which they occurred. Therefore, please consult with your Forest River dealer to determine the addition of accessories, changes or modifications that are not listed in your purchase order. © 2015 Forest River, a Division of Forest River Inc., a Carthage, Missouri Company.
