

August 10, 2023 Edition

Accounting Reminder - While we have gotten away from the long-standing policy of receiving payment up front for parts, and such, charging items to your account more than doubles our administration costs on each invoice. It is simply better business to not have to use the additional resources unnecessarily. When you come to the store to pick up parts, request a propane delivery, or pick up a package, have your payment with you!

Thanks to all who purchased tickets and donated items, especially our corporate sponsors of Dollar General, Dominic's, Dunkin Donuts, Mountain Mart, and The Vault.
